

Shipping

What happens if I refuse my package as a Domestic Customer ?

Please note that if you refuse your Domestic Order that you will be subject to a $15.00 fee for the return shipment fee. In addition, you will not be credited back for your original shipping charges. We highly suggest that you do not refuse your package and follow the return instructions that are enclosed in the packaging. If you are unable to provide us with return tracking information we will not be able to credit you back for your order. If your package is returned due to an undeliverable address, the fee of $15.00 will be applied to your order.

Unique solution ID: #1101

Author: Lex Dreitser

Last update: 2018-06-21 00:22